fundación goya en aragón
research grants:
call for proposals

The Fundación Goya en Aragón is offering three research GRANTS in 2010, aimed at providing financial support for research projects.

The GRANTS are available to teachers, PhD candidates and researchers who apply on an individual basis. The GRANTS are intended to fulfil one of the Fundación Goya en Aragón's key objectives: to promote research into Francisco de Goya and to encourage the study and dissemination of his life and work.

RESEARCH GRANTS CALL FOR PROPOSALS

13) Applicants must submit the following documents:

- A completed application form (this will be available on the Fundación Goya en Aragón's web site (www.fundaciongoyaenaragon.es) or can be obtained at the Foundation's offices), stating which category of Grant is being sought.
- A photocopy of the applicant's National Identity Document or Passport.
- A curriculum vitae supported by documentary evidence.

- Academic record.
- Two letters of recommendation from relevant persons or institutions.
- Evidence of the applicant's level of competence in the languages required in order to undertake the research.
- All documents must be typewritten in Spanish or English.
- Documents must be submitted in duplicate.

14) Unsuccessful applicants may collect their project documents, either in person or through an appointed representative, up to two months after publication of the Jury's decision. Documents not collected by the end of that period will be destroyed.

15) Applications which do not comply with all the above conditions will not be considered.

16) The Jury's decision is final and applicants cannot take any action before the courts or any other body to have the Jury's decision overturned. Applicants shall accept the decision and the Fundación Goya en Aragón will not respond to individual queries concerning the award of the GRANTS.

17) By submitting an application for these GRANTS the applicants accept the above Conditions of Award and any other conditions which the Fundación Goya en Aragón may establish in order to monitor the progress of the research projects.
